Licking County 4-H Youth Development Program
Horseless Horse Mentorship Project
~ Contract of Understanding ~

Must be submitted with Horse Identification Paper

Horseless Member's Name: ____________________________ Date: __________

The purpose of the Horseless Horse Mentorship project is to offer an opportunity for those youth who are truly interested in the equine industry to learn about horses through building a relationship with another youth who is willing to share their knowledge, time and project animal. Through this relationship, both the Mentor and Horseless member will benefit from interaction, hands-on learning, and the sharing of experiences.

Expectations of Horseless Horse Mentorship Member:
- Must be enrolled in project #173-M during the current 4-H project year. Member is then welcome to chose the project book that is appropriate for their interests and skill level. This decision should be made in consultation with their parent(s), 4-H advisor and Mentor.
- Must submit Mentorship Program Contract of Understanding, with appropriate signatures.
- Must submit 4-H Horse Identification Form for “project horse” as designated by Mentor.
- Must meet with Mentor regularly to work with project horse and gain knowledge and skills that will benefit their involvement in the horse program.
- Encouraged to be present while Mentor is showing in Licking County 4-H shows.
- Eligible to enter Horseless Horse classes offered by Licking County 4-H and the Hartford Fair.
- Must maintain a log/journal of work and learning experiences throughout the project year. This journal must be brought to grading during the Hartford Fair and should be submitted for review by 4-H Educator by no later than September 1st of current project year.

Expectations of Mentor:
- Must assist Horseless member in completing Mentorship Program Contract of Understanding.
- Must assist Horseless member in completing 4-H Horse Identification Form.
- Mentor should be present, ringside, while Horseless member is exhibiting/showing the project horse.
- Must meet with Horseless member regularly to work with project horse and gain knowledge and skills that will benefit their involvement in the horse program.
- Must maintain a log/journal of work and learning experiences throughout the project year. This journal must be brought to grading during the Hartford Fair and should be submitted for review by 4-H Educator by no later than September 1st of current project year.
- Should demonstrate appropriate behavior while participating in 4-H events. Poor sportsmanship may revoke ability to participate in the Mentorship program.

General Program Guidelines:
- Mentor must be at a higher level of knowledge and skill than Horseless member. It is recommended that the Mentor be a Point rider.
- A 4-H member may serve as a Mentor for no more than two Horseless members in one project year.
- The Horseless member may only show/exhibit the Mentor's project horse.
Advisors are welcome, and encouraged, to assist in the mentorship process so as to make this relationship as successful as possible.

Youth may enroll in Mentorship project for no more than three years.

The Horseless Horse Mentorship program will be facilitated by the Licking County 4-H Youth Development Program Educator. Youth participating in this program may be recognized during the Annual 4-H Horse Recognition Banquet based upon the involvement and level of accomplishment.
