ADDITIONALLY

Training Session Format...

Each ONLINE training session will begin with a general update pertaining to the Hartford Fair and COVID-related guidelines to be in place during the fair, followed by species-specific information (one species per session). Youth are encouraged to register for one session, based upon the species for which they need the most information or support. All sessions will last for a period of 75 minutes. All qualified QA training programs must take place on / prior to June 1st.

Enforcement of Rules & Notification of Ineligibility...

Any Hartford Fair youth exhibitor who has not met the Junior Fair Livestock Quality Assurance training requirement at the conclusion of the last scheduled meeting (May 19, 2021) will be notified by email that they are ineligible to exhibit livestock (in the areas requiring QA training) during the 2022 Hartford Independent Fair. At that point, they will have until June 1, 2022 to complete a training in another county or complete YQCA online training (at their cost) in order to meet the training requirement. On June 2, 2022 the Senior Fair Board will receive a listing of those exhibitors not meeting requirements. These individuals will be denied entry of livestock projects which require quality assurance training.

Delaware & Knox County 4-H Member Requirements...

Those youth who attend the Hartford Independent Fair and are enrolled members in the Delaware or Knox County 4-H program will be required to attend only one Quality Assurance program. Upon their attendance of a program in their home county, their Extension Office will contact the Hartford Fair and Licking County Extension office to report attendance. Any youth not completing a quality assurance program in either their home county or within Licking County by June 1, 2022 would then be found ineligible to exhibit in the 2022 Hartford Junior Fair livestock program.

4-H Horse Safety & Ethics Training...

All Ohio horse project members are required to participate in a safety and ethics program once during their membership in the 4-H horse program. All horse project members who are enrolled in the project for the first time during the 2022 project year will be required to participate in a 2022 Safety and Ethics program in order to carry a horse project and exhibit their project. Horseless Horse project members who intend to show during Licking County 4-H or Hartford Fair horse shows are also required to participate in a Horse Safety & Ethics training. Licking County 4-H Horse Safety & Ethics Training will be offered in an online format, utilizing a Zoom platform, during 2022. Anyone with questions should contact the Licking County Extension Office for additional information or clarification. NOTE: Delaware and Knox County horse members should seek clarification of requirements from their county Extension office.
