Licking County 4-H Youth Development Program

Club Officer Training Workshop & New Family Orientation

Thursday, April 20, 2023

6:30 p.m. – 8:00 p.m.

Granville High School (248 New Burg Street, Granville)

4-H Officer Training Workshop will assist in preparing club officers to fulfill their responsibilities as club officers through providing instruction and helpful resource materials. Officers will have an opportunity to actively participate in sessions and ask any questions they may have about their roles and responsibilities. This workshop is open to both those who have been elected to officer positions in 2023, and those who aspire to serve in those positions in the future.*

The 4-H Family Orientation will be beneficial for those 4-H parents who wish to learn more about opportunities available through the 4-H program and how they as parents can effectively support their children as they enjoy all 4-H has to offer.

 No registration is necessary ***

Prizes offered to the 4-H clubs with greatest number of members in attendance!
