

36th Annual Licking County Rabbit Royalty Contest

When: Wednesday June 2, 2021

Where: Zoom Presentations by Scheduled Time

Applications are due by Wednesday, May 19, 2021

Who can compete: Licking County 4-H members currently enrolled in a rabbit project for the 2021 4-H year.

Queen and King: 13-18 years old as of January 1, 2021

Princess and Prince: 8-12 years old as of January 1, 2021

Royalty rules and responsibilities: After an individual has been chosen to hold a title, they are ineligible to compete again for the same title. After a youth has been chosen as Princess or Prince, they must skip a year before they can compete for Queen or King. A division must have a minimum of 3 participants to hold the contest. If a division does not have the minimum number of candidates, that division will not compete. Candidates who applied under that division will be notified by Thursday evening prior to the contest if this occurs.

All title holders are expected to spend time in the Rabbit Barn during the Hartford Fair. The royal court will assist with passing out awards during the shows and sale placards during the small animal sale. Any additional community parades and events are at the discretion of the royal court. When representing the rabbit division, title holders are expected to present themselves professionally and wear their designation accordingly. In the event a member of the royal court is unable to meet the outlined expectations, the respective first runner-up may be asked to finish out the remaining term.

Applications Due by Wednesday, May 19, 2021 to:

Licking County Rabbit and Poultry Committee
c/o Sonia Tilley
10630 Baker Road
St. Louisville, OH 43071

Any questions please call: 740-334-0540

Presentations will be held via zoom in 15-minute intervals starting at 5:00 pm on June 2, 2021

Candidates will be assigned their presentation time and topic on May 26, 2021 via email.

Royalty will be judged on their application, introduction and presentation.

Applications will be scored on neatness, completion and originality of answer and must be completed on the enclosed form. Presentations will be on a fishbowl style rabbit-based topic. Presentations will be judged on personality, appearance, personal introduction and knowledge of rabbits. Contestants should wear business casual clothing (girls-nice knee length dress or business suit and boys-dress pants, button down shirt and tie). No jeans, shorts, t-shirts, flip flops, active wear or formals permitted!
