

38th Annual Licking County Rabbit Royalty Contest

When: Sunday, April 30, 2023 at 3:00 p.m.

Applications are due by no later than April 24, 2023

Where: Licking County Extension Office (771 E. Main Street, Newark)

Who can compete: Licking County 4-H members enrolled in a rabbit project for the 2023 4-H project year.

Queen and King: 13-18 years old as of January 1, 2023

Princess and Prince: 8-12 years old as of January 1, 2023

Royalty rules and responsibilities: After an individual has been chosen to hold a title, they are ineligible to compete again for the same title. After a youth has been chosen as Princess or Prince, they must skip a year before they can compete for Queen or King. A division must have a minimum of 3 participants to hold the contest. If a division does not have the minimum number of candidates, that division will not compete. Candidates who applied under that division will be notified by Thursday evening prior to the contest if this occurs.

All title holders are expected to spend time in the Rabbit Barn during the Hartford Fair. The royal court will assist with passing out awards during the shows and sale placards during the small animal sale. Any additional community parades and events are at the discretion of the royal court. When representing the rabbit division, title holders are expected to present themselves professionally and wear their designation accordingly. In the event a member of the royal court is unable to meet the outlined expectations, the respective first runner-up may be asked to finish out the remaining term.
